London Yearly Meeting, 1715, on Dress

That all friends both Male and Female, be carefull that their adorning be that of a Meek and Quiet Spirit, which in the Sight of God is of Great price, even as the Holy Men and Women of old (professing Godlyness with Good Works,) were adorned, oh that our Young Men and Women would follow their examples! But to our great grief we find too many of our Young Men, instead of observing that Gospel exhortation, to be soberminded, have given way to Lightness, and Vanity, and the pernicious Effects thereof have lead them in to Pride so y^t some have Cutt off good Heads of Haire, and put on long Extravagant and Gay Wiggs, w^{ch} they that are not of profession wth Us, see, as a Mark of Declension from our Primitive plainness.

And likewise that our young Women would cease from that unseemly and Immodest appearance of their High heads, and Wearing their Gowns set up like the Proud ffashion-Mongers of y^e World; certainly both Males & ffemales, who take such undue Measures, flee the Cross of Christ, & if they do not Repent and Return, they will thereby suffer Great Loss. But in y^e Bowells of Christian Compassion We Warn and Exhort all such to come into that subjection that y^e Yoke of Christ may be their delight and their souls may reap y^e comfortable fruits of bearing y^e same.
